

Hi All,

So far, it looks as if our 2020 Sale will have to be cancelled. Schools probably won't be opening again until September. We can't do Pricing Parties until all the rules regarding sociable separation have been lifted. Even if Queen of Angels opens in September, one month doesn't give us enough time to be ready.

There is a tiny bit of space left in the container, which is being saved for people who are moving and for families of parishioners who have died. The rest of us will have to hang on to our donations. It's too bad, because many people are using this time to clear cupboards. Our storage room at the school isn't ready for us yet. Normally, Kathy has it emptied and available for us by the end of April, but that can't be done this year.

Other ways to support Jesu Ashram:

A group of us met in early March to make greeting cards - mostly for Christmas and birthdays. We are still working on those at home, and later on we could sell them at the church and maybe at some school events in the fall perhaps.

A Raffle has been suggested; we already have some fabulous prizes. We used to do raffles every year and they were well supported. (Do you remember those wonderful cakes iced by Sherriden?) After a license was required for raffles, we shifted to our Silent Auction.

These are some of the jobs that would need to be done if we had a raffle:

- * Get a permit - can now be done on-line
- * Print tickets, make booklets
- * Take pictures of prizes & make a display for ticket sales
- * Organize ticket sales and handle the money
- * Sell the tickets.

Is anybody interested in being a Raffle Coordinator?

Donations to Jesu Ashram can be sent through St. Edward's.
